About the session leader

Jo Price

Jo has worked in specialist education and residential provisions for children and adults with a diagnosis of autism and or learning disabilities for several years.

She is passionate about Positive Behaviour Support (PBS), ensuring the quality of services provided by various organisations to people with a learning disability are maintained to a high standard and the prevention and reduction of restrictive practices in schools.

She has recently joined the team at the British Institute of Learning disabilities (Bild) as PBS Schools Lead and is a tutor for the PBS qualifications for parent carers.
